Box No. IV Lack of unity of invention
1. In response to the invitation to restrict or pay additional fees the applicant has:
restricted the claims.
paid additional fees.
paid additional fees under protest.
neither restricted nor paid additional fees.
2. This Authority found that the requirement of unity of invention is not complied with and chose, according to Rule 68.1, not to invite the applicant to restrict or pay additional fees.
3. This Authority considers that the requirement of unity of invention in accordance with Rules 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 is complied with.
not complied with for the following reasons:
Divisions of inventions Claims 1 and 2; claim 3; claims 4 and 5; claim 6; claim 7; and claims 8-16 and 18
The inventions of the groups of claims shown in the above "Divisions of inventions" relate to substances per se that can interact specifically with sugar chains. Many "substances that can interact specifically with sugar chains," which is the common feature of the subject matters, are well known to a person skilled in the art, including lectin and antibodies recognizing sugar chains. Immobilizing sugar chains in a support carrier by means of such a substance is a publicly-known technical matter, as described in the documents: JP, 60-163667, A, & JP, 62-228273, A, & EP, 399464, A2. Accordingly, it is not found that the respective inventions of the groups of claims shown in the above "Divisions of inventions" have a technical relationship with one another involving the same or corresponding special technical features. There are no documents found to deny the novelty of the compounds represented by the general formula (I) of claim 8, and so the subject matters of claims 8-16 and 18 are grouped as one group of inventions. Accordingly, it is not considered that the respective inventions of the groups of claims shown in the above "Divisions of inventions" are a single group of inventions so linked with one another as to form a single general inventive concept.

The subject matters of claims 1-7 do not appear to be novel or to involve an inventive step in view of documents 1-5 cited in the ISR.

Documents 1-5 concretely describe substances that can interact specifically with sugar chains.

The subject matters of claims 8-16 and 18 appear to be novel and to involve an inventive step in view of documents 1-5 cited in the ISR.

The specific substances of claims 8-16 and 18 that can interact specifically with sugar chains are neither described in documents 1-5, nor could have been easily conceived of from the descriptions of documents 1-5.
